Thank you for joining us to learn about Cultural Competence!

This webinar series is sponsored by the National Center on Advancing Person-Centered Practices and Systems. NCAPPS is funded by the Administration for Community Living and Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services.

NCAPPS webinars are free and open to the public.

The goal of NCAPPS is to promote systems change that makes person-centered principles not just an aspiration but a reality in the lives of people across the lifespan.

Webinar Logistics

- Participants will be muted during this webinar. You can use the chat feature in Zoom to post questions and communicate with the hosts.
- Toward the end of the webinar, our speakers will have an opportunity to respond to questions that have been entered into chat.
- The webinar will be live captioned in English and Spanish. To access the Spanish captions, please use this link: <https://www.streamtext.net/player?event=HSRI-SPANISH>
- This live webinar includes polls and evaluation questions. Please be prepared to interact during polling times.

Feedback and Follow-Up

- After the webinar, you can send follow-up questions and feedback about the webinar to NCAPPS@acl.hhs.gov (Please note that this email address is not monitored during the webinar.)
- The recorded webinar, along with a pdf version of the slides and a Plain Language summary, will be available within two weeks at NCAPPS.acl.gov. We will also include questions and responses in the materials that are posted following the webinar.

What we will do together this afternoon

- Describe a framework for cultural competence and at the individual and organizations levels.
- Provide a “real life” example of an organization that values and practices cultural competence.
- Highlight personal narratives of individuals who will share what culturally competent services mean to them.
- Describe how cultural competence and person-centered thinking and practice are integrally linked.

A quick refresher on culture before we define cultural competence

CULTURE

- ✓ Culture influences every aspect of life and defines who we are as humans.

CULTURE

- ✓ Culture is learned and shared knowledge about our own way of life and that of others. It includes our values, norms, morals, beliefs, practices, customs, ceremonies, rituals, language and much more.

CULTURE

- ✓ We all have multiple cultural identities.

CULTURE

Another quick refresher on culture before we define cultural competence

- ✓ Culture remains the same and yet it is dynamic. Aspects of culture are passed down from generation to generation while others are constantly changing.
- ✓ Oftentimes and unconsciously we view and understand the world from our own cultural perspective. This makes it difficult to view and understand cultures that are different than our own.
- ✓ Programs, organizations, systems of services and supports are also culturally defined – including those designed for individuals with disabilities and mental health needs, and those who are aging.

Definition and Conceptual Framework: Cultural Competence

The Developmental Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000

SEC. 102. DEFINITIONS. [42 USC 15002]

The term cultural competence means services, supports or other assistance that are conducted or provided in a manner that is responsive to the beliefs, interpersonal styles, attitudes, language and behaviors of individuals who are receiving services, and in a manner that has the greatest likelihood of ensuring their maximum participation in the program.

Cultural Competence Conceptual Framework

Cultural competence requires that organizations have a clearly defined, congruent set of values and principles, and demonstrate behaviors, attitudes, policies, structures, and practices that enable them to work effectively cross-culturally.

(adapted from Cross, Bazron, Dennis & Isaacs, 1989)

Five Elements of Cultural Competence

INDIVIDUAL LEVEL

- 1 acknowledge cultural differences
- 2 understand your own culture
- 3 engage in self-assessment
- 4 acquire cultural knowledge & skills
- 5 view behavior within a cultural context

Five Elements of Cultural Competence

Organizational Level

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS IN A CULTURALLY COMPETENT SYSTEM

These five elements must be manifested at every level of an organization or system including:

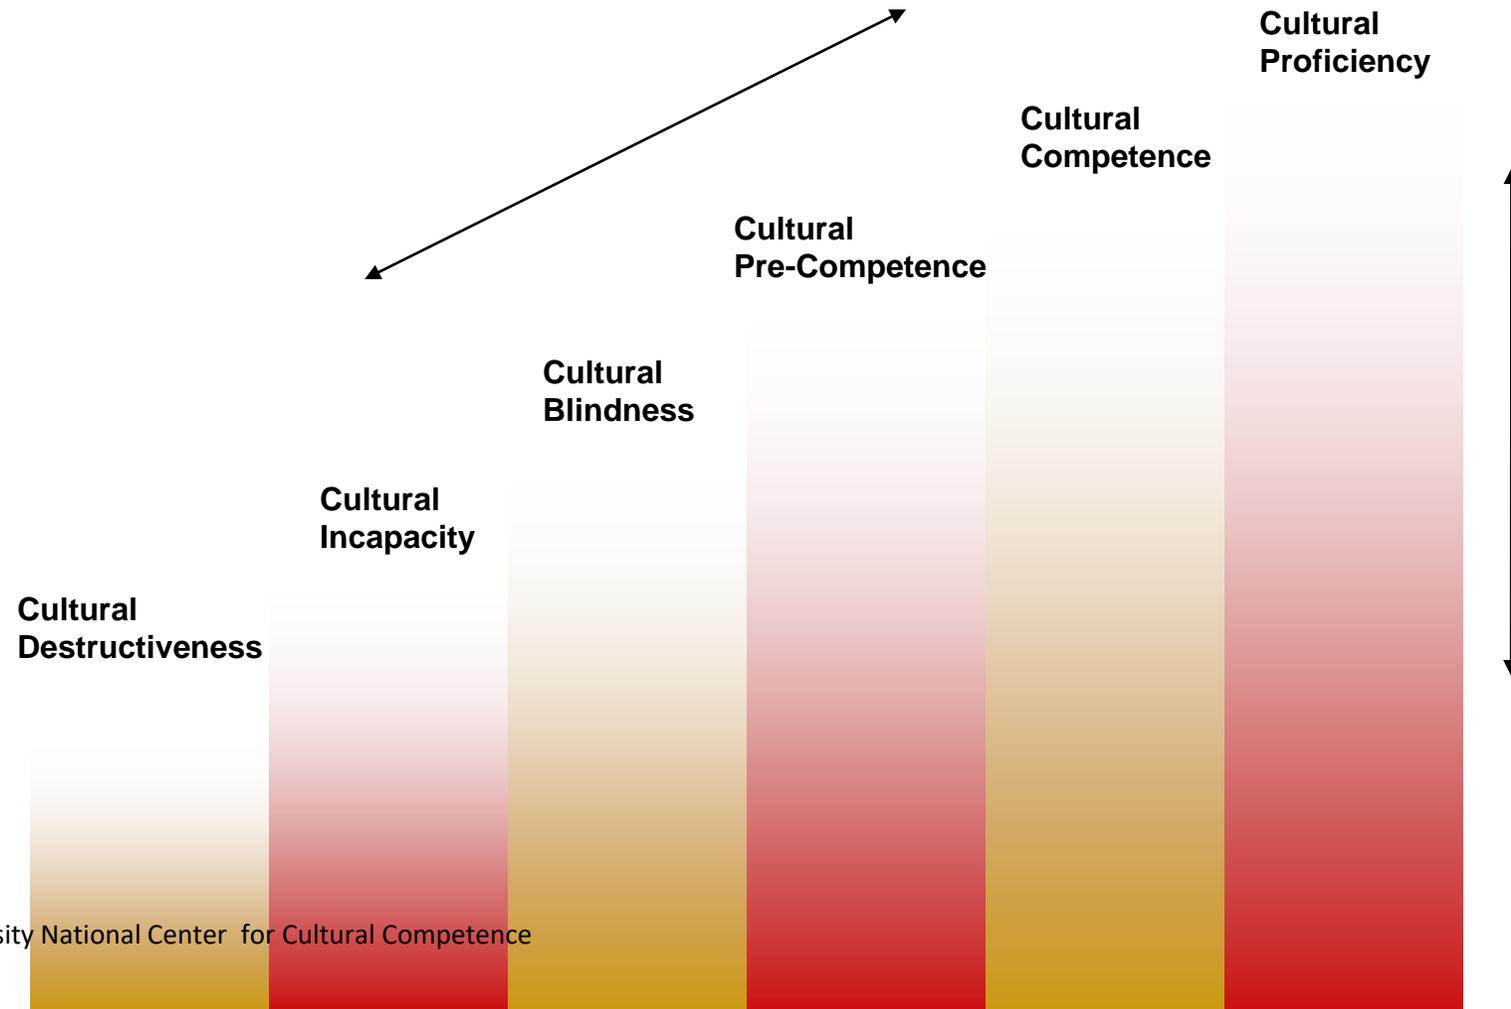

and reflected in its attitudes, structures, policies, practices, and services.

Polling Questions- Round 2

In your organization, agency, or program:

1. Is there a shared understanding of cultural competence and its role in services and supports among:
  - Staff?  yes  no  in progress  don't know
  - Contractors?  yes  no  in progress  don't know
  - Clients, consumers, families?  yes  no  in progress  don't know
  - Communities served?  yes  no  in progress  don't know
2. Is there a firm commitment among leadership and staff to advance and sustain cultural competence?  yes  no  in progress  don't know

Let's Hear from our Speakers

Diana

Lorraine

Brenda Liz

Christie

I have asked each panelist to respond to the following prompts:

- Introduce yourself to the audience, name and organizational affiliation. Share your lived experience with disability, mental health or aging. Describe the work of your organization, agency, or program.
- Describe the role of cultural competence and its importance to your work and/or to the services and supports received by a family member.
- What is the correlation between cultural competence and person-centered thinking and practice?

NCAPPS puts forth the following definitions

“Person-centered thinking is a foundational principle—requiring consistency in language, values and actions—that reveals respect, views the person and their loved ones as experts in their own lives, and equally emphasizes quality of life, wellbeing, and informed choice.

Person-centered planning is a methodology that identifies and addresses the preferences and interests that make up a desired life and the supports (paid and unpaid) needed to achieve it. It is directed by the person, and it is supported by others selected by the person.

Person-centered practices are the alignment of services and systems to ensure the person has access to the full benefits of community living and to deliver services in a way that facilitates the achievement of the person’s desired outcomes.”

Polling Question – Round 3

To what extent has your in-service training or professional development on Person-Centered Thinking and Practice included content on cultural competence?

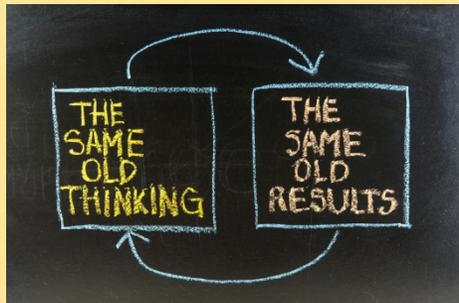

- Never
- Rarely
- Sometimes
- Very often
- Always

Aligning Person-centered Thinking, Planning, and Practice with Cultural and Linguistic Competence

Person-Centered Thinking

It is not just the culture of the person receiving services and supports, it is also the culture of the person delivering services and supports.

Person Centered Planning

It is: (1) having the knowledge and willingness to embed the multiple dimensions of culture in all aspects of the planning process; (2) revisiting and revising extant tools and approaches that do not or minimally emphasize culture.

Person-Centered Practice

It is ensuring that the values, structures, practices, attitudes, and behaviors of the organization and its staff are aligned with principles and practices of cultural and linguistic competence.

Valuing Diversity: Responsive Policies & Practices

Our foremost commitment: to children and families with the greatest need due to disability or special health/mental health needs; poverty; discrimination based on race/ethnicity, gender, language, immigrant or homeless status; involvement in the child welfare or juvenile justice systems; geographic location; or other special circumstances

Valuing Diversity: Responsive Policies & Practices

- Strategic Plan
  - Diversity, Equity, Inclusiveness, Self-efficacy, Collaboration, Engagement, Fearlessness, Community, High Standards
  - Galvanize diverse parents, families & professionals to influence policy with families & children at the center

Valuing Diversity: Diverse, representative staff

- Staff, volunteers, & parent leaders
  - Job descriptions & advertising/recruitment
  - Equal employment & affirmative action hiring policies
  - Promotion policies

Organizational Assessment:

Examine alignment of culturally competent & person-centered practices

- Cultural & Linguistic Competence Self-Assessment
- Language Access Assessment & Plan
- Family-Centered Services Self-Assessment
- Individual Self-Assessment for Core Competencies for Trauma-Informed Staff
- Elements of Trauma-Informed Environment Self-Assessment

Organizational Assessment: Assessment by Constituents

- Project & organizational evaluation
  - Surveys
  - Workshop/event/support group evaluations
  - Feedback at the end of each phone call/individual assistance
  - Call-backs to diverse families
  - Focus groups with diverse families
  - Vignettes/family stories

Manage Dynamics of Difference:

Prepare & Support Staff to Communicate & Interact Effectively with Families & Each Other

- Initial & ongoing staff & volunteer development
  - SPAN Resource Parent training for all staff & volunteers
  - Quarterly All Staff meetings with embedded staff development
  - Weekly calls with all staff providing individual assistance; frequent highlighting of cultural & language issues, family- and person-centeredness
  - Annual Statewide Cultural Competence Conference
- Explicit focus in annual performance reviews including in review rubrics

Manage Dynamics of Difference:

Adapt Person-Centered Planning to Socio-Cultural Contexts & Community

- “Do unto others as they would have you do unto them.”
- “Seek first to understand, and then to be understood.”
- Steven Covey
- “It is only with the heart that one can see clearly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.” - Antoine de Saint Exupery, The Little Prince

Embed Cultural Knowledge:

Policy, Structures, & Practices that Integrate Culturally Competent & Person-Centered Practices

- Our hiring policies & practices result in staff, volunteers, and leaders who are primarily diverse parents and young adults with lived experience of the “isms” and of systems that are not family- or person-centered
- Our initial & ongoing preparation & support of staff & volunteers is focused on ensuring respect for, and viewing our constituents as experts in their own lives, entitled to quality of life, wellbeing, & informed choice (person-centered thinking) – all of which is influenced by culture & language
- Significant focus on ACTIVE & EMPATHIC LISTENING

Embed Cultural Knowledge: Ensure Staff Acceptance & Adherence

- Set & enforce explicit expectations

Adapt to Diversity & Cultural Contexts of Communities Serviced:

Keep Abreast of Demographics of Community (Geography)

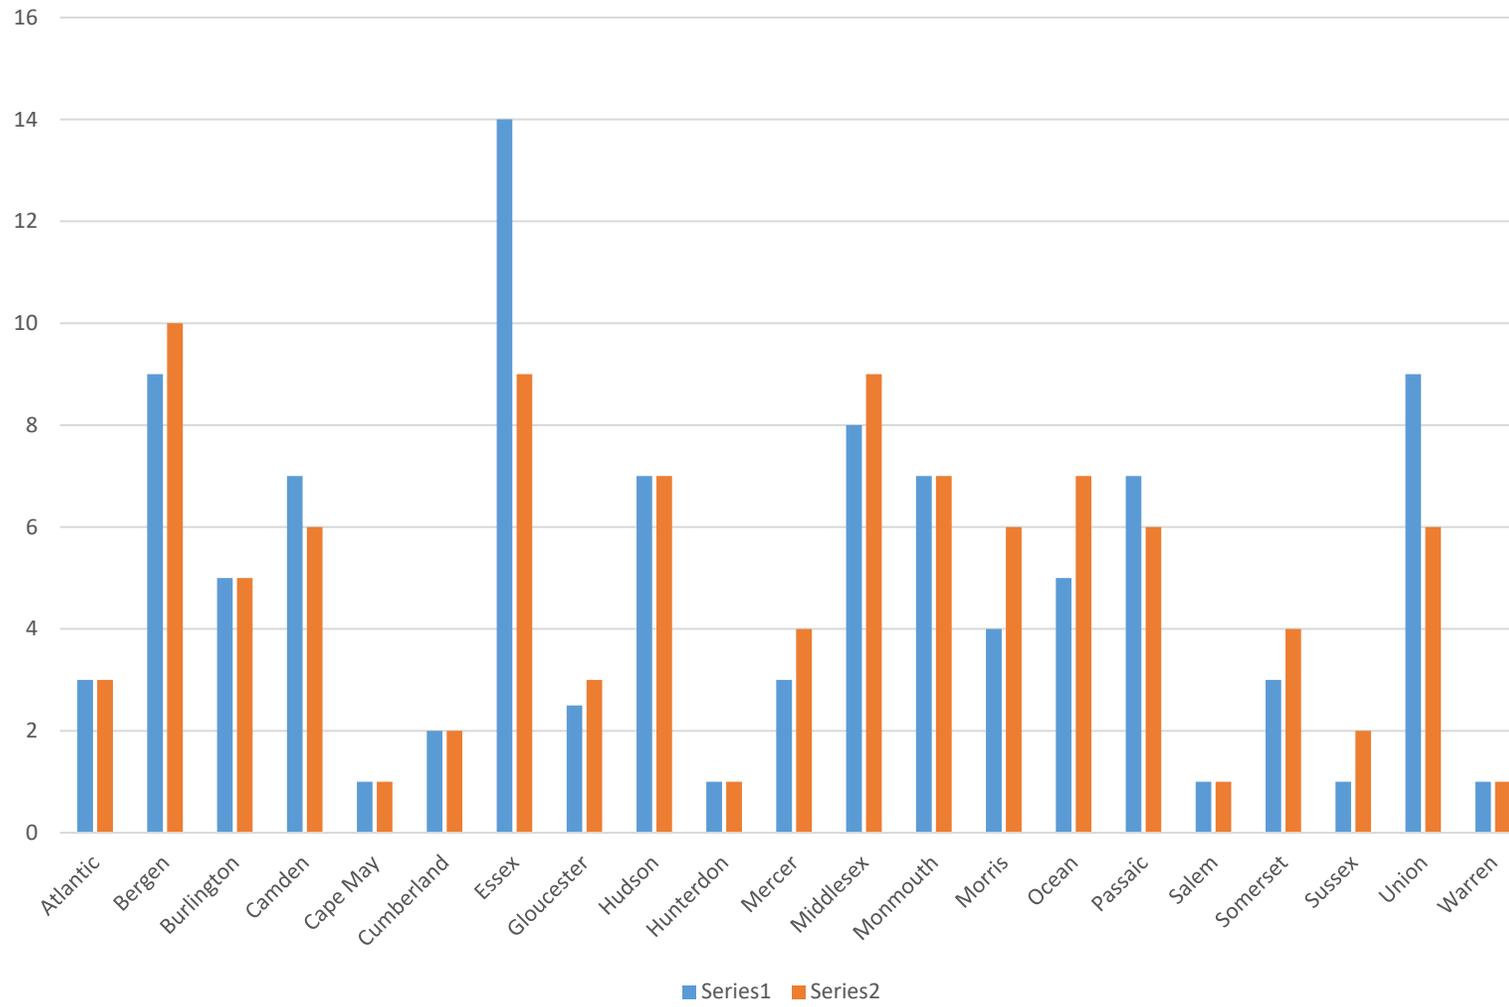

- Revisit language access plan every year; conduct a language access self-assessment every 3 years.
Language demographics = key component of these processes
- Review community demographics of our state, 3 regions, counties, etc. on an ongoing basis
- Measure diversity of Board, staff, volunteers, parent leaders in comparison to constituents

Adapt to Diversity & Cultural Contexts of Communities Serviced:

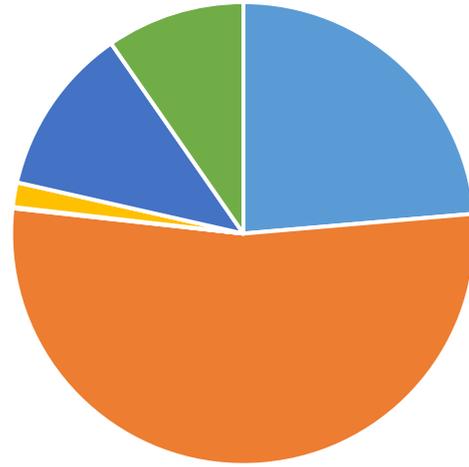

Systemically Review Demographics of Persons
Receiving/Needing Services

- Who did we serve?
- Is it representative of our state?
  - Race/ethnicity/language
  - Immigrant status
  - Gender
  - Age
  - Disability/special healthcare need
  - Geographic location (county/municipality; region of state; county)

Families Served vs Population by County Expressed in %

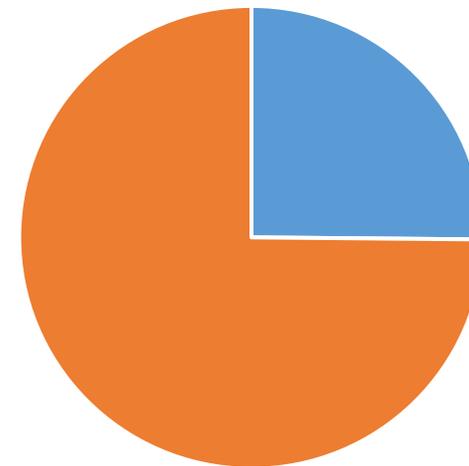

Families Served by Race 2018-2019

■ Caucasian ■ African-American/Black ■ American Indian ■ Asian ■ Two or More ■ Undisclosed

Contacts by Ethnicity 2018-2019

■ Hispanic/Latino ■ Non-Hispanic
